Ascension

Eternal One, give us a spirit of wisdom and revelation that, as we pray, we may discern how to act to change our world.
We read the news, O God, and are tempted to despair.
We hear of wars now, and conflicts to come as our planet heats.
We see injustice and inept politicians,
perceive both broken services and broken trust.
Spy scares and vested corporate interests contribute to our need for wisdom;
be with us, then, O God as we pray.
